INDIANA SOCCER ANNUAL AWARD CATEGORIES AND DESCRIPTIONS

Administrator (Youth Programs and/or Adult Programs) of the Year Award

The recipient of this award gives an extraordinary amount of time and energy to the game of soccer. The recipient should be a positive role model for other volunteers. This administrator may assist a team, a club, league or the state organization.

Volunteer of the Year Award (Youth and/or Adult Programs)

This award recognizes the soccer volunteer who is a positive role model for the community beyond soccer, yet receives no compensation for the efforts. This person demonstrates a willingness to promote soccer and helps increase the opportunity for others to participate in soccer.

Team Manager of the Year – (Youth or Adult team)

This award honors the countless hours that the team manager (the coach's "right hand person") spends doing administrative tasks such as tournaments, emails, handouts, phone calls, assisting at team trainings and games. This person is invaluable.

TOPSOCCER Buddy of the Year – honors the person that has gone above and beyond when working alongside athletes with exceptional needs in the TOPSoccer Program. The person(s) receiving this award will be given a scholarship provided by the Indiana Soccer Foundation.

TOPSOCCER Coach of the Year – honors This award honors a hard working, dedicated and ethical coach in a TOPSoccer program. The person that has gone above and beyond when working alongside athletes with exceptional needs in the TOPSoccer Program.

Good of Soccer Award (Jay Fredrich Good of Soccer Award)

The recipient of this award has made a significant contribution to youth soccer in the state of Indiana over a long period of time. The effect of this person's dedication will be seen for years to come. This award is also given to individuals that give extraordinary effort to a specific event or program over a relatively short period of time.

Boys Travel Coach of the Year Award (Mike Berticelli Boys Coach of the Year Award)

This award honors a hard working, dedicated and ethical coach in a travel program. This coach is well prepared, knowledgeable, also teaching integrity, respect and sportsmanship to their players. Players, parents and other coaches should consider their coaching performance as exemplary and one who is influential in creating a better environment. Success on the field is also a determining factor.

Girls Travel Coach of the Year Award

This award honors a hard working, dedicated and ethical coach in a travel program. This coach is well prepared, knowledgeable, also teaching integrity, respect and sportsmanship to their players. Players, parents and other coaches should consider their coaching performance as exemplary and one who is influential in creating a better environment. Success on the field is also a determining factor.

Boys and Girls Recreational Coach of the Year Award (a separate award for each)

These recipients dedicate their time and efforts to recreational soccer. They promote participation and fun to the players, as opposed to winning and losing. Players and peers view this person as an influential role model, a person who is in the game for the kids to have fun and creates a positive playing environment.

Club Director of Coaching

This award recognizes and promotes a Club Director in Indiana who is a licensed coach, supports the Indiana Soccer vision of player development, Code of Conduct and has the respect and admiration of the coaches, players and administrators within the club.

Young Referee of the Year Award (Girls/ Boys)

The recipient of this award should be a Grade 8 Official. The young male and female that receives this award is professional in appearance, dependable, consistent in performance, has a positive attitude toward players and team officials. This young referee must be a role model both on and off of the playing field. They also give that extra effort to the game of soccer.

Referee of the Year Award (W. John Denkmann Referee of the Year Award)

This award honors a referee that is regarded as professional in appearance, dependable, consistent in performance, has a positive attitude toward players and team officials. This referee has a high impact on referee development through mentoring or administrating referees. This referee must have a considerable amount of experience on the field.
