

Randy Rompolo is a partner with the law firm of Barnes & Thornburg LLP and is resident in the firm's South Bend office. He focuses his practice primarily on issues relating to public finance, economic development, municipal and educational law and corporate transactional work. He has also counseled a number of not-for-profit organizations around the state regarding governance and tax-exempt issues. He is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame Law School.

Originally from northeastern Pennsylvania (Wilkes Barre), Randy received a bachelor's degree in history and government from King's College. Prior to entering law school at Notre Dame, Randy served as an intelligence officer in the United States Air Force.

Presently, Randy serves as President of the St. Joseph County Scholarship Foundation. He also serves as a member of the Board of Directors of the South Bend Community School Corporation Education Foundation and the Board of Directors of the Indiana Soccer Foundation. Previously, Randy served as member and former President of the Board of Directors of the Michiana Echo Soccer Club for over 6 years. He also served as member and President of the Board of Directors of the Youth Service Bureau of St. Joseph County Directors of the United Way of St. Joseph County, and also as a member of the Indiana University South Bend Arts Foundation Board of Directors. Randy has also served as a youth travel soccer coach for a number of years and for the last several years as an assistant coach for the Saint Mary's College soccer team.

Randy lives in Granger and is married to Mary Ann Rompolo. Randy and Mary Ann have three (3) children: Sarah, Ryan and Emily.